Railroad Must Pay

Judge McIlvaine Orders Judgment at Once in Sum of $22,500 Due County

Judge McIlvaine has sustained a former adjudication in the matter of exceptions in the case of Washington county against the Pennsylvania Railroad company. He directs that the railroad company pay the sum of $22,500, the amount embodied in the former judgment at once. The suit was over the use of a road leading to the old river bridge at Monongahela.

TO START IN FULL

River Shipping Workings to Increase Capacity Monday

INSPECTOR WARNS MEN

Running about half capacity today river shipping coal mines along the Monongahela valley are making arrangements to start work in full as nearly as possible on Monday morning. Railroad shipping mines are not being started to their fullest capacity, it is stated. Practically the entire stock of coal shipped by river has been used up by manufacturers in the Pittsburgh district and Southern users, but those receiving coal by rail have yet a good stock on hand. Among the workings which will make an effort to resume in full Monday are practically all the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company's mines, including the Fayette City, Redstone, Little Washington, Alice, Eclipse, Chamomni, Crescent, Tremont and Apollo. Of the Pittsburgh Coal company the Arnold No. 2 will resume and the Naomi mine of the Naomi Coal company will start in full.

Mine Inspector F. W. Cunningham of the twenty-first district has warned the miners to be careful in starting work in the mines, which have been suspended since the first of April. Accidents, Mr. Cunningham states are more likely to happen at a mine which is resuming after a few weeks' shutdown than at one which has been operating steadily. Accidents will not likely happen from the gas, but from loosened roofs falling.

Supreme Orator Here. Col J. M. Evans, supreme orator for the Protective Home Circle is in town today and will address the members of the local circles on fraternal insurance in P. H. C. Hall at 8:30 p. m. The colonel is a gifted orator and is high authority on fraternal orders and always has something good to tell. Members are requested to be present.

TRY TO INTEREST OLIVER IN LOCKS

Coal Men Visit Junior Senator and Several Representatives From Pennsylvania in Regard to Monongahela River Improvements

An effort to interest Senator Geo. T. Oliver in the improvement of Locks No. 4 and 6 in the Monongahela river was made by J. W. Daugherty and John C. Neff, the latter of the Crucible Steel company, at Washington, D. C. Thursday. Messrs. Daugherty and Neff called on Senator Oliver and several of the Western Pennsylvania representatives. A survey of Lock No. 4 has been about completed, an appropriation for the work being contained in this year's bill, together with an appropriation for the survey of Lock No. 6.

The locks which are of more or less antiquated design, are not built to well accommodate the large steel barges which the Crucible and other companies shipping coal down the Monongahela plan to put into use. The big lock at Lock No. 4 will accommodate the big barges, but the smaller lock cannot be used for them, being too short.

It is the desire of shippers to have the locks reconstructed by the government at an estimated cost, it is stated of $580,000. However, this would not be enough to entirely rebuild both locks. Friends of the project are now working to have an amendment made to the rivers and harbors bill now before the Senate Commerce Committee.

LOCAL PEOPLE ON CARPATHIA

Party Was on Way Across Ocean When Titanic Survivors Were Picked Up

On the Carpathia which carried the survivors of the sunken Titanic to New York, were five Charleroi people and two Monongahela men. They were all on their way to Italy having purchased two tickets from Councilman Frank Riva, the local steamship agent. The Charleroi voyagers were Vincent Alfieri, his wife and son Manuel and a child of Baptist Meli, of McKean avenue. Friends of the local people sent telegrams to them Thursday, asking them concerning the health of Mrs. Alfieri. When they left Charleroi she felt a trifle nervous about the long voyage, and nearly backed out of taking the trip at all. The Carpathia was outward bound and turned back to rescue the passengers in the lifeboats of the Titanic when she picked up the wireless signals of distress. She will make a new start from New York as soon as possible.

Girl Bitten by Dog.

Bernice Peterson, the eight-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Peterson of Belle Vernon, has been in the Mercy Hospital at Pittsburgh for a week taking Pasteur treatment. She was bitten by a dog thought to be mad. The head of the dog has been sent away for examination.

Odd Fellows to Attend Service.

All Odd Fellows residing in Charleroi and members of sister lodges are cordially invited to attend divine service at the Baptist church on Sunday, April 21 at 11 o'clock. The members will meet at the hall on the corner of Fifth street and Washington avenue at 10:30 sharp and march in a body to the church.

Charleroi Folks Witness Pirates Take Measure of St. Louis Cardinals.

At the opening game of the National League season in Pittsburg Thursday Charleroi was well represented. Among those from here who attended the game were: M. T. Crowley, Dr. J. Clive Enos, H. L. Swickey, George Myford, Abe Levinson, Chas. Irons, Jack Mathias, W. R. Gaut, Cleve Mathers, Al Bertsche, D. Murphy, "Dick" Simon, John Higgins, William Monroe and John Hagenau. Pittsburg won the game from St. Louis by the score of 4 to 3, largely through Hendrick's pitching.

Alfred P. Stewart Says Titanic Was Much too Far North

TELLS OF COLUMBIA

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:

Sir—Quite a number of people are advancing ideas as to the cause of the frightful and terrible result of the collision of the liner Titanic with an iceberg. To my way of thinking it can be attributed to but two causes—one criminal carelessness and downright negligence of two officers, one on the bridge and one in the engine room, and the other the insane and damnable desire to break a record, when the conditions were altogether unfavorable.

Let me cite an instance in which the conditions were parallel, but the result very different. Some years ago the U. S. Government built two cruisers named the Minneapolis and the Columbia. They were peculiar in construction, and had the unique feature of having three engines and three propellers. They were called commerce destroyers, and had greater speed than any vessel afloat at that time. The Columbia was attached to the European squadron, and on her being ordered to the United States, took a picked crew from all the other vessels, had her bunkers filled with choice Welsh coal and started from Southampton for New York "to establish a record."

As it was and is now customary to take the temperature of the sea water every 30 minutes, the Columbia had been at sea about 48 hours, traveling at a 23 knot gait, when a perceptible drop in sea water temperature took place. This was immediately reported to the bridge. Another test was made, and a further drop noticed. Word was telegraphed to the engine room to reduce the revolution. This was done several times until the ship was steaming at 10 knots per hour. It was disappointing to the ship's company because

Relates Terrible Tale of Titanic Affair—Her Husband is Lost

PICTURES ISMAY'S ACT

Widowed Woman Says He Pushed Aside Women and Children to Save Him-self

That Lucien P. Smith of Uniontown and Morgantown went down on the Titanic last Monday morning and that his bride of three months is safe in New York was confirmed by long distance telephone by long distance telephone from Miss Jean Snyder talking for Jas. S. Smith a brother of Lucien P. Smith, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel to Alex. Chisholm, Jr., a friend of Mr. Smith at the Uniontown Herald office early this morning. Mr. Smith was probably the only person who lost his life that was known in Charleroi.

A story of tender love and devotion for his beautiful wife was that told of Lucien P. Smith by his young widow last night when the Carpathia docked at the Cunard pier in New York and Mrs. Smith was met by her relatives and friends and taken to the Waldorf-Astoria.

Mrs. Smith told of her husband putting her into a lifeboat after the vessel had been wrecked. The young wife was sleeping in her cabin and Lucien went down and brought her to the deck. The young woman had forgotten a treasured ring that her husband had given her shortly before their marriage on February 7, last and the husband went below to the cabin and secured it.

He put it on his wife's finger, kissed her goodbye telling her that he would join her in another lifeboat as soon as the women and children had been put off. He placed his wife in a lifeboat and called goodbye as it left the Titanic.

Mrs. Smith told of the trip on the Carpathia to New York. She said that Bruce Ismay, the managing director of the White Star line had saved himself in preference to the women and children that were still on the decks when his lifeboat left the ill-fated vessel. She said that on the Carpathia Ismay had secured the best quarters and had two doctors attending him, while 26 newly made widows, including herself, slept on the floor of the deck.

The young widow said that very few men in the first cabin were saved but several steerage passengers, both men and women, were saved in preference to the first cabin passengers.

She told of the great liner breaking in two when it went on the iceberg. At the time Captain Smith was giving a dinner and there was no one on the bridge of the vessel. When Captain Smith saw that the Titanic was about to sink he shot himself.

Mrs. Lucien Smith is getting along as well as could be expected.

THE ETERNAL FITNESS.

According to the philosophy of asmasus Wilson, the "Quiet Observer" of the Pittsburgh Gazettemes, who recently lectured in Charlroi on "The Eternal Fitness of ings," the compensation to be und in the dreadful disaster of the eck of the ocean liner Totanic is e awakening of the public con-cience to the necessity of conserving man life. To a lesser degree the errors of the Titanic disaster are related around us every day where man life is sacrificed upon the al-r of carelessness, negligence and e greed of gain. Now it is an inufficiently ballasted railroad track d that causes a rail to spread and tch a train, which is most often a eight, with only an engineer, a eman or a brakeman killed. Per-ps it is a narrow entry way into a ine where some poor fellow gets lled against the rib by a trip of ine cars. Again it may be a pro-cting nut on a revolving shaft col-r, or an unprotected gearing that tches the clothes of a passing work-an and guinds him to death. Or st of all it may be an unsanitary rkshop which, if it escapes the sions of fire, slowly saps the life the workers in order that producmay be increased and cheapened.

These horrors occur every day in one here, one there, but the gregate of victims in the course of year throughout the United States exceeds in number the victims of a Titanic disaster. This does not ke account of big disasters like a ine explosion, a railroad wreck, or actory fire. These latter cause mentary thrills, but are soon for-tten by the public. They have been ufficient however to cause a persis-nt effort to be made by a devoted few to cause the safe-guarding of dangerous occupations, and to enact equitable workmen's compensation laws. That slow progress is made in this direction is realized chiefly by those who are laboring for these reforms, and these alone are the ones who realize how each recurring disaster of magnitude quickens the public conscience and makes the demand for the conservation of human life more imperative.

It requires just such a disaster as this—one that overwhelmed the wealthy and highborn as well as the poor and lowly—to arouse the public to a sense of its responsibility. A great disaster like the wreck of the Titanic shows the cumulative effects of the negligence that is individually in constant operation and the financial and social standing of the victims is the compensation that will work to protect the humble worker and traveler as well as the rich and powerful.

UNPRODUCTIVE WOMEN

In an article on "The Irresponsible Woman and the Friendless Child" in the May American Magazine, Ida
M. Tarbell says:

"The heaviest burden today on productive America, aside from the burden imposed by a vicious industrial system is that of its non-productive women. They are the most demanding portion of our society. They spend more money than any other group, are more insistent in their cry for amusement, are more resentful of interruptions of their pleasures and excitements, go to greater extremes of indolence and uneasiness.

"The really serious side to the existence of this parasitical group is that great numbers of other women, not free, forced to produce, accept their standards of life. We hear women, usful women, everywhere talking about the desirability of not being obliged to do anything, commiserating women who must work, commiserating those who have heavy household responsibilities, and by the whole gist of their words and acts, influencing those younger and less experienced than themselves to believe that happinss lies in irresponsible living."

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Whenever a man feels tired out he has the patent medicine symptoms, although by others it is called the spring fever.

Spring depression of spirits is oftentimes caused by the knowledge that the lawn is to be mowed, or carpet is to be beaten.

While the lack of riches probably kept some of us from going down with the Titanic, there isn't a soul among us who would not tomorrow take the wealth and chances that go along.

Who is more deserving of a hero medal than the one laughed at some time ago—Marconi, the inventor of the wireless?

Since last November the weather man has had it easy. During the winter it was usually "continued colder" or simply "colder" and since then it has been mostly "cloudy or rain," with enough "fair and warmer" thrown in however to make predicting interesting.

Here, Chuck! Chuck! Chuck!
The hen's a dumpy sort of bird
With dirty feet, but gee!
Cut out the hen and on our word Where would glad Easter be?
—Houston Post.

Then there's the bird that crows at dawn,
He's something of a booster;
Just think how lonesome the hen would be
If it wasn't for the rooster.
—Scranton Tribune-Republican.

The rooster is the hero, see?
The hen will have to go some;
She'd never lay an egg if he Were not around to crow some.
—Johnstown Democrat.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Great minds seem to run in the same channel. When the particulars of the wreck of the Titanic became known in Charleroi—how the liner was sunk by ramming an iceberg far up in the northern Atlantic, the question that naturally arose was why do vessels go so far north in crossing the ocean? Landlubbers so far inland as Charleroi are not supposed to know much about nautical matters, but the opinion is advanced by others whose standing in public affairs is such that their utterances command attention. Andrew Carnegie, for instance, has the same opinion as that of the most landlubbers, and the newspapers quote him thusly in a letter to Mayor Gaynor of New York:

"Dear Mayor: What was the Titanic doing up among the ice when she had the whole Atlantic ocean south open and free? This is the root of the matter. Passenger steamships should be compelled to keep far south below the range of icebergs at all seasons. Life boats are secondary to this vital requirement."

Mayor Gaynor replied to Mr. Carnegie as follows:
"Dear Mr. Carnegie: As usual you hit the nail exactly on the head. They had no business up there among the icebergs, and being there they should have stopped. The question of life-boats is a secondary one. I thank you exceedingly for your generous check of $5,000 for the sufferers."

In Charleroi as elsewhere, the awful catastrophe of the wreck of the ocean line Titanic caused intense interest among all classes, men, women and children. Both the morning and evening editions of the newspapers were eagerly awaited for additional news of the disaster. Thursday evening when a youth who attends a Pittsburg school and goes up and down on the train every day arrived home the first question his mother asked was:
"Did you bring up a Pittsburg evening paper?"
"No," he replied, "but Pittsburg won—four-three—from St. Louis."
"Oh," replied the mother, "I wanted to read about the shipwreck. I don't care anything at all for your old ball game"

"LOOK OUT

DO YOU know of anyone D who is old enough to sign at a railroad crossing?

If everyone has seen it at some

Maybe you think, Mr. Merchant, "Most everybody knows my

Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars."

Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.

The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business.

If it pays to run a few ads round about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

It's just business, that's all, so

Stubborn Colds May Lead to Consumption

Did you ever have a cold that would not let go; a cough that persisted, that prevented sleep, and made waking hours miserable? Eckman's Alternative is the proper remedy in such cases. Perhaps some simple medicine may be effective where it is only a tickling in the throat but when your chest is sore and simple remedies don't answer—then take Eckman's Alternative. Neglect often leads to more serious trouble; a case in point follows: 715 Cherry St., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: In July, 1905, I first noticed the condition that showed I had Consumption. I lost weight rapidly; had a hollow cough, hemoptyses and very severe night sweats. My brother recommended Eckman's Alternative. In the Fall of 1905 I began to take it. At this time I am perfectly well and robust. My appetite is good and my weight has increased from 110 to 150 pounds. Not a trace of my old trouble remains. I will gladly express the merits of this medicine to anyone."

(Signed)

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and

WINTER CLUB HOLDS

ITS WEEKLY DANCE

The Winter Club held its usually successful dance in the Night auditorium Thursday evening, the affair being attended by about 80 couples from Charleroi and other points along the valley. Dancing was from about 8:30 until 1. Miss Ethel Collins, the Pittsburgh soprano who was to have sung was unable to attend the dance. Carnations were given. Miss Collins has been engaged for next week's event.

Of Course.

A man in a nearby town fell down the cellar steps the other day with a barrel of apples on top of him. He broke his left leg, his right arm, two ribs, his nose, one finger, cut his scalp, sprained his ankle and put his shoulder out of joint. But he didn't groan or cuss until his wife inquired if it "hurt him." Then he did both.

Old Colliery Closed.

Tranent colliery, Haddingtonshire, from which coal has been taken for nearly 700 years, was closed recently. For many years women went down the mines at Tranent and worked with the men. One or two old women who were formerly engaged in the mines are still living in the district.—London Daily Mail

Her Fault.

A certain Scotch professor was left a widower in his old age. Not very long after he suddenly announced his intention of marrying again, half apologetically, adding: "I never would have thought of it if Lizzie hadn't died."—Harper's Weekly.

New Swimming Machine.

Providing a cork jacket, which keeps its wearer upright in the water, with a propeller driven by two cranks, a New Yorker has invented a device which is a variation from most styles of swimming machines.

The Mother of Clubs.

Mrs. Caroline Severance, who is called the mother of clubs, celebrated her 91st birthday recently in her home in Los Angeles. She is quite up to date in every way and laughs at the anti-suffragists. She says she remembers a Boston man telling her that once women were not even allowed to attend lectures. She believes in co-operative housekeeping and she thinks that factories should be outside the limits of cities.

Latest Thing in Clubs.

"Never again!" This is the motto of a novel club recently organized in Trenton, N. J., in which only persons who have previously attempted to commit suicide are entitled to membership. The club began its existence with forty members.

CHILD WAS SICKLY

Mother Says, "I Think Vinol Saved Her Life."

Parents are wise in trying to break up children's coughs quickly, but they are not always as wise as this mother in the means they adopt.

Mrs. Willis Van Inwegen, of Bloomingburg, N. Y., says: "My small girl had bronchitis all winter till the doctor said it was chronic and we were afraid we should lose her. I commenced giving her Vinol three times a day and now she is growing fine. I think Vinol saved her life."

Children like to take our delicious tonic, Vinol, because it is pleasant. And it is much better for them than so-called "cough medicines" for they have no strengthening power, while Vinol builds up the body and makes the blood rich. Give Vinol to your delicate rundown children (and take it yourself if you are not as strong as you should be) and you will be delighted with the results. If you are not we give back your money. Every School Girl

In Charleroi and vicinity should wear our Hats, Coats and Dresses. They lend a distinction that no well dressed girl can over-look, and now that commencement is drawing so near, every girl wants to look her best.

We can fit the largest girls out in coats, suits, dresses and waists; the smaller ones in coats and dresses

For the misses these rainy days demand Rain Coats; for the children Rain Capes. This demand is not only from the standpoint of health, but from an economical view as well. Bring the girls in and buy what they need.

MRS. GOEHRING HOST AT SILVER SOCIAL

Mrs. L. H. Goehring was host at her home on Meadow avenue at a silver social held Thursday evening under the auspices of the Ladies League of the Methodist Episcopal church. About 50 were present. Games and contests were enjoyed throughout the evening. At the lunch serving time, there was a "grand march" each person constituting himself his own waiter. This was a unique and decidedly entertaining feature.

IN WRONG LATITUDE

they were all interested in the "record breaking run." The word was passed that there was an iceberg in the vicinity. This ship steamed for several hours at this speed before the iceberg hove in sight, the water continually dropping in temperature the nearer the ship approached. The ship immediately changed her course and put south for probably 50 miles this making sure of avoiding any danger and of course giving up the attempt to establish a record.

How easily this could have been done with the Titanic, but no, they wanted to "break a record." The Titanic was traveling at about 24 geographical miles per hour. Has anybody stood and watched an automobile pass them at 24 miles per hour? Then imagine the Titanic with her tremendous length, breadth, and depth, and her enormous weight, 60,000 tons. Let us reduce that to something we are more familiar with. Think of 120,000,000 pounds of man-made material coming in contact with a nature-made obstruction. It is the nearest answer to the fool question, "what would be the result if an irresistible force were to strike an immovable object." The bottom of the Atlantic Ocean holds the answer.

Think of the toll that has been demanded and paid by the automobile, the aeroplane, all to establish or beat a record. But the White Star Liner Titanic has established a record at a tremendous sacrifice of human lives, and never equalled before in the world.

It is to be hoped that the "record" established by the leviathan of the sea—the unsinkable ship—will stand for all time to come, a compelling monument to somebody's gross carelessness and criminal negligence all for the sake of "beating or establishing a record."

FIENDISH PAIN OF PILES

Done Away With By a Peasant Internal Medicine.

All the worst tortures of human life, roiled into one, can hardly compare with the fiendish pain of piles. The victim eagerly buys anything that will bring a moment's ease, but the trouble usually comes back. Get HEM-ROID—a scientific inward pile cure that frees the stagnant blood and dries up the piles.

10th Anniversary

We will be 10 years old next Monday, April 22nd. It is quite different today from our opening day of 10 years ago. We started business with a $400.00 capital, which by the way was entirely wiped out after 6 months of business. Our assets today are over $13,000.00. At the beginning we, 25 of us, comprised the entire membership. There are now 564 of us banded together for our own good. In 1902, our monthly receipts barely amounted to $1,000.00. Today they average over $1,000.00 a week.

On the 27th of This Month We Will Open a Branch Store in Monessen With a Membership of 91

The past 10 years have been spent in preparatory work. We have now perfected our organization to meet future developments, that will insure the growth and spreading of Co-operative ideas. We thank you for your past favors, and hope with a full knowledge of the principles of Co-operation to include our entire community in one big association, each helping himself while helping his neighbor.

We invite you to visit our store next Monday. Useful souvenirs to each customer.
